Tune—"Silver Threads." 191: "This Is the Way." 192.

Sweet the mountains rich in blessing, Which before the cross I stand.

Life and health and peace possessing From the sinner's dying hand.

Here I sit, to wonder viewing, More's streams in streams of blood;

Precious drops my soul bedewing, Plead and claim my peace with God.

Here I sit, to wonder viewing, More's streams in streams of blood;

Precious drops my soul bedewing, Plead and claim my peace with God.

Here I sit, to wonder viewing, More's streams in streams of blood;

VERMILION, Alta.—We were very sorry to say farewell to Lieutenant Nielson. Although the Lieutenant was only here for about six weeks, she was well liked and was a great blessing to all.

On Tuesday, June 1, we gave Lieutenant Clark a real welcome into our midst. Although the Lieutenant arrived Sunday morning she had her proper welcome Tuesday on account of our having our week-end special.

Two of our converts of Sunday night returned on Tuesday to give God the glory and testified to His saving power.

We are all going forward to victory under the leadership of Captain Carter and Lieutenant Clark—J. T. Y.

DAUPHIN, Man.—The devil is getting defeated in Dauphin. The comrades of the Corps keep very busy. On June 5 we had our Home League Sale. Everyone did his best to make the sale a success and we realized $50.

On Saturday night we had a lovely time in our open-air service. Many stood by listening to the Gospel message. It does our hearts good to see the comrades and new converts take their stand in open-air, and as our converts expressed it, "I'm glad I've got Salvation and I must spit it out."

We had good meetings all day on Sunday. In the night meeting we had with us Rev. Bowman, who said he was so glad to be able to get to a meeting where he could hear the Amens and Hallelujahs.

Just a word, Mr. Editor, about the War Cry. They are all over the place. We have no trouble selling ours. They sell like ice cream on a hot day. We have increased our number from 100 to 160. (Congratulations—Ed.) It is true what the Commissioner says. One can often find entrance into people's homes much more readily with the War Cry than they can otherwise. It helps in visitation—Redwing.

EDMONTON 11.—Commandant and Mrs. Johnston paid a visit to the Edmonton 11 Corps recently. The visit was well attended in spite of the uncertain weather. Mrs. Johnston, accompanied by her husband, Mr. Johnston, and a number of other ladies, was made to God and The Army the baby of Brother and Sister Benson. My God while Major Sim was with us, and a very large crowd gathered again to see the children.

We all enjoyed the Divisional Officers' visit and are looking forward to the time when they shall come to us again. The singing of hymns (the Major's title girl) in the open-air and indoor meetings was a treat to all.

Welcome to Korea

Colonel Stevens' Reception Meetings—Thirty-three Seekers

A cabled message received in London from Korea reports the welcome in Seoul of Colonel Stevens, who was transferred recently from India to take charge of The Army's work in that country.

The reception meetings were well attended, and among those supporting Colonel and Mrs. Stevens on the platform were representatives of various public bodies and religious societies. In the Salvation meeting thirty-three seekers knelt at the money-seat.

In connection with the welcome the Colonel met the European and native Officers in Council and also held a gathering for soldiers. All meetings were deeply impressive.

The Self-Denial effort just concluded resulted in a total of 4,600 yen, which is more than double the amount raised last year. It is noteworthy that this success was achieved in the absence of a Territorial Commander and Chief Secretary.

Self Denial Results, Winnipeg City Corps

The Commissioner Announces Results—Splendid Advance in Five Years—Banners Presented

The farewell of Brigadier Taylor, late Divisional Commander, and the installation of the new Divisional Commander, Brigadier Phillips, was conducted some weeks ago by the Commissioner, and the occasion was taken advantage of to announce the city's Self-Denial results, which were so far in advance of previous efforts that great enthusiasm prevailed.

We hope to be able to publish a full statement of the result throughout the Territory. In the meantime, however, we are passing on particulars of the splendid results secured by our Winnipeg comrades. The total for this year is a magnificent achievement and we heartily congratulate all concerned on the splendid victory. The results for the Corps attached to the old Manitoba Division, as compared with the amount secured in 1915, are as follows:

Winnipeg City Corps	$191.00	$217.00
Winnipeg II. Corps	$240.00	$263.00
Winnipeg III. Corps	$260.00	$283.00
Winnipeg IV. Corps	$180.00	$200.00
Winnipeg V. Corps	$180.00	$200.00
Winnipeg VI. Corps	$180.00	$200.00
Winnipeg VII. Corps	$180.00	$200.00
Winnipeg VIII. Corps	$180.00	$200.00
Total	$2,010.00	$2,217.00

This means an increase in the five years of $207.00.

The Corps Officers are as follows:
No. I.—Commandant Hamilton.
No. II.—Captain Sharp.
No. III.—Captain Ratcliffe.
No. IV.—Adjutant Peterson.
No. V.—Captain Peterson.
No. VI.—Captain Peterson.
No. VII.—Captain Peterson.
No. VIII.—Captain Peterson.

Prizes awarded:
Prizes were awarded as follows, and presented by the Commissioner, whose happy remarks kept the enthusiasm at boiling point throughout the meeting:

This letter is but typical of the spirit which was manifested by comrades everywhere. When Salvatians are first with the self and determination, it is little wonder that their record is so encouraging. Congratulations are extended to all concerned on the splendid result achieved.

The results from the Corps outside the city, being affected by the Home Service campaign, were not announced. A feature of this year's effort has been the excellent altar services, and the increase in the personal gifts of the soldiers.

A large part of the city is allocated to the Training Home Division, from which the Cadets and Training Home Corps, viz., Winnipeg VII. (Elmwood), IX. (Fort Rouge), and X. (Norwood), collected $3,000.

Commissioner Riddell's Campaign—Eight Hundred Seekers

That energetic veteran, Commissioner Riddell, has returned to London after a four month campaign in Norway, Sweden, Finland and Denmark. The Commissioner visited large and small Corps, conducted Officers' meetings and public meetings, and saw over eight hundred seekers.

Speaking of Finland the Commissioner said the bravery of our Officers and soldiers throughout the dark days of the revolution calls for the highest praise, and their deliverance for thanks to God. Not one was injured. Nor did any of our buildings suffer.

Moreover, Salvationists were the only people allowed in the streets by the "Reds," while in their indoor meetings they had perfect freedom.

Large crowds attended the Commissioner's meetings in every centre visited, and the seekers included people of all classes. At one meeting in Denmark a woman wearing furs said to the Salvationists nearest to her, "Lead me to Jesus!" She was conducted to the money-seat, and several others in a similar state of life surrendered in the same way.

The 150 seekers at Bergen, Norway, included some desperate characters. A building near was witnessed at midnight, as one after another went to the penthouse form. One man cried out: "I have rejected the Spirit for twenty-two years. Have mercy upon me, O God!"

Commissioner Riddell has just visited Walkerville, Ont., where he conducted the opening ceremonies of the new Corps Citadel. The Senior hall accommodates 350 persons, and provision is made for the Junior Corps in the basement. Comfortable Officers' quarters are also provided.

The Commissioner was assisted throughout the week-end by Mrs. Richards, Lieut-Colonel Ash, Mrs. Bowling and Lieut-Colonel Ash. The Windsor Band was also present and gave most appreciated assistance with the singing.

Brigadier Jessie Gordon is to be far-located in the Old Country, but will be back in time for the opening of the next season of the Training College. While in the Homeland the Brigadier will meet her sister from South Africa at the wedding of her brother, who has been very ill.

Lieut-Colonel and Mrs. Nettle led the morning and afternoon services at the Toronto Temple on a recent Sunday. One could come forward in the morning and afternoon. The Brigadier was in charge at night, and five souls were captured.

Lieut-Colonel Chandler sailed for England on the Mandaroon on July 5, and will spend a short furlough there before proceeding to his new appointment.

We are pleased to say that Mrs. Lieut-Colonel Ash is making good progress after the operation referred to in last week's issue.

Brigadier Jessie Gordon is to be far-located in the Old Country, but will be back in time for the opening of the next season of the Training College. While in the Homeland the Brigadier will meet her sister from South Africa at the wedding of her brother, who has been very ill.

New Zealand Campaign Gloriously Opened by Two Days with God at Christchurch—Seventy Seekers

STIRRING RECEPTIONS MARK JOURNEY TO DUNEDIN

Special Cable to the British War Cry from Commissioner Theodore Ritchie

Dunedin, June 18

After a rough journey from Sydney, The General launched his New Zealand campaign by a "Two Days with God" at Christchurch, although the boat's delay reduced the number of meetings. Operations of the Holy Spirit marked every gathering.

I do not wonder either before, over my quarter of a century's association with The General, have I known his message to be more direct, clear, and plain upon all classes of hearers. His voice has been very that of a prophet of God, declaiming against sin, half-heartedness and ease, and pleading for self-surrendering service.

Notably, though by no means the last meeting alone, many responded promptly to his call for surrender to God's will and purpose, nearly seventy in all. A prominent minister with whom I conversed testified to a renewal of the fire in his own heart.

The train journey south today was broken at several stopping-places, including Timaru and Oamaru, for receptions. A great crowd at the latter town included Archbishop Russell.

Commissioner Sowden, of Sweden, has been conducting meetings in Copenhagen, Denmark, where he was cordially greeted by many comrades with whom he served years ago.

News comes of the death in Copenhagen of Professor Frederick Dahl at the advanced age of ninety-eight. The late professor was one of The Army's oldest and most faithful friends, and many remarked on his striking outward resemblance to The Army's Founder.

For the benefit of American troops at Ranabach, Germany, rooms have been opened by The Salvation Army in a cafe, the former proprietors of which is undergoing a term of three months' imprisonment for supplying soldiers with drink.

Dr. Johansen, who is in charge of The Army's Asylum Hospital, India, has been awarded the Silver Badge by the Government of India for voluntary work performed in connection with the war. The badge was accompanied by a letter expressing the Governor's hearty thanks.

Commandant Ash has been appointed Divisional Officer for Bermuda. He will be sailing shortly. Lieutenants Anne Harrison (St. John) will accompany him and Mrs. Ash, and will assist at Southampton Corps.

Adjutant and Mrs. Galway, who have been in charge of Hamilton Corps (Bermuda) for the past three and a half years, are farewelling, and their new appointment is Lippincott (Toronto).

The following Officers have received their new appointments as follows: Commandant and Mrs. Squarbridge, Temple (Toronto); and Mrs. Parsons, Hamilton I.; Commandant and Mrs. Cameron, Ligar Street; Adjutant and Mrs. Fred White, York.

Brigadier Catherine Booth, International Secretary for Europe, has returned from flying an important series of visits on the Continent, and has brought with her some interesting particulars concerning The Army's present standing in the places at which she called. Before setting out on her campaign, Brigadier Booth travelled to Geneva to be present as the representative of The General at an international conference on behalf of the Salvation Children scheme.

Notable in interest and importance was the Brigadier's visit to Berlin, where she met the Officers in Council, and held a public meeting, and inspected the arrangements for the distribution of milk among the starving children. Everywhere she went Brigadier Booth was received with the greatest warmth and kindness, not only by the Officers—of whose devotedness she speaks in the past—but by people of all classes, including the gentry in the streets. At a gathering of Officers held soon after the Brigadier's arrival a message from The General and Mrs. Booth was greeted with a ringing shout of affection and loyalty. With tears in her eyes one of those comrades sent reciprocal greetings, adding: "Tell The General and Mrs. Booth we have done our best."

The building recently vacated by the Training Garrison on Twenty-Second Street, New York City, has been fitted up for use as a Young Women's Boarding Home.

Commander Eva Booth has for some months been anxious to make provision for the working girls in New York City. This is the first concrete arrangement developed. Several other greater plans are being formed for the relief of the urgent need.

Mrs. General Booth will, according to present arrangements, visit Berlin, Germany, in July for the purpose of conducting the summer congress.

In connection with the installation of Staff-Captain Mary Booth as Divisional Commander at Brighton, Lieut-Colonel Rich, Field Secretary, mentioned an interesting coincidence. He was ennobled as a soldier of the Brighton Division thirty years ago by a woman Divisional Commander, and later on, in the same Division, was accepted for Officership by another woman Divisional Commander.

The Commander in London

Commander Eva Booth's visit to London and other European points has been the occasion of great outbursts of love and affection on the part of thousands of her old friends over there.

The Commander spent a Sunday at the historic old Congress Hall, and these meetings were a gigantic success. Two hours before opening time on Sunday morning crowds were waiting to get in, and at night it is said the crowd was the biggest ever packed into the building. The Commander was supported throughout by the Chief of the Staff, Commissioner Higgins, Commissioners Howard and Booth-Tucker, and dozens of international and national headquarters dignitaries.

The result for the day's fight was 145 souls, among whom were many deserving bachelors and domestic sinners.

During her stay in London the Commander visited the graves of the Army's glorified Founder and of the Army Mother—in distinguished parents, upon whose grave a wreath was placed.

Lieut.-Commissioner Nurali

We are pleased to announce the promotion to this rank of this veteran woman warrior. With the announcement of the promotion, the Commander's word of the retirement, after over thirty years of faithful, devoted service as Lieut.-Commissioner Nurali (Case).

Commissioner Duff, in paying tribute to Commissioner Nurali, said: "As I learned to know Captain Case, her calm sweetness and power, and her evident sense of God's abiding presence with her, I am impressed most greatly. But I little dream of the remarkable organizing and administrative capacities which lay hidden under her unobtrusive dignity."

"And now Nurali, or 'Bright Light' as her Indian name signifies, stands with the radiance of twenty-nine years of unbroken service and sacrifice for India behind her."

"After five years of stiff soldiering when in order to know The Army better she became governess in the home of Colonel and Mrs. Gordon of Salisbury, and following heart-rending ordeals led by the present General, she decided on Giffordshire, and served for over thirty years."

"Family circumstances are the force present keeping the Commander in Bristol, England, but she looks forward to helping the work in India and the Mission Field wherever and whenever opportunity may arise."

Major Sims at St. James

In the absence of the Officers away on furlough, Major Sims conducted the services at the St. James Church Sunday last. Considering the host of the day, the crowd was very good, and the services were very good. The Corps Cadets assisted in the singing, and the young people, too, were very good. The services were very good, and the crowd was very good.

The Major was present at the Company Meeting, at which the young children were in attendance. He reports that the Y.P. S.M. has a good hold on the Young People, and is doing more of them. Several of the Juniors are away and are doing well. Commander Hahrik announced to the meeting next Sunday.

NANAIMO, B.C.—We are still having the presence of the Y.P. S.M. in full spirit. Captain Greig, of Vancouver, who is on holiday in Nanaimo, took the Sunday night meeting and spoke on Christian grace, and gave us three more souls.

We also welcomed Brother Sholart back, and are hoping to have his family back soon.—H. E.

The Chief Secretary with the Citadel Band at Dauphin

Highly Successful Series of Meetings—Band Warmly Welcomed—Crowds—Finances Over $700—Several Souls—Gilbert Plains, Kamsack and Humboldt Also Visited

The Winnipeg 1. Band tour is a sure and blessing to those present. A striking item on this program was the holding of the Flag of the Union, a large crowd of friends being there to cheer them on their trip. The Chief Secretary, Colonel Turner, accompanied the Band from Winnipeg also Eddy Burditt was one of the party.

The first week-end was spent at Dauphin, and the meetings were under the able guidance of the Chief Secretary, who was assisted throughout by Staff-Captain Hahrik.

As the Band stopped off the train early Saturday morning they were met by Captain McCaughy, Officer in charge of Dauphin, and no time was lost in getting the inner man satisfied before the time was done.

The first place visited was the General Hospital; then the Maternity Hospital. A complete must was rendered at each place, and patients and staff alike were cheered.

Gilbert Plains

At 1:30 the Band, with eight cars at its disposal, left the hall for Gilbert Plains, some 85 miles distant. I don't think the Bandmen were utterly tired for the good time they had. A large crowd assembled to hear the program, and some very narrow escapes were the result. A very good crowd assembled to hear the program, and some very narrow escapes were the result. A very good crowd assembled to hear the program, and some very narrow escapes were the result.

It takes to tell, $85.00 was deposited on the drumhead.

A meeting opened at the festival in the city hall, a large crowd listening attentively outside the Hamilton Hotel.

If the crowd in the city hall exceeded Captain McCaughy's expectations, the playing of the Band surely exceeded the Bandmaster's expectations; for when one considers that fifteen of the Band were unable to participate in the tour, great praise is due the Bandmaster for bringing the Band in to such a pitch.

The Band reached a height of excellence in the rendition of Saturday night's program. The vocal and instrumental numbers were all given with credit to the Bandmen and place of Captain.

Staff-Captain Hahrik is visiting the following Corps: Nequawa, Duplin, Swan River and The Pas. Look out for him, Young People, and his a rousing welcome. He is a great champion of the young folks and will give you an interesting meeting. God bless the Manitoba D.O.

The writer was an unexpected visitor at the St. James Company Meeting, at which the young children were in attendance. He reports that the Y.P. Three Corps Cadets from Red Deer, Alta., have been accepted for training, and expect to enter the Training School early in September. Several other Corps Cadets from Alberta will also be numbered with the next batch of Cadets.

Brigadier and Mrs. Taylor visit Transcona on Sunday last and cheer on the local comrades by their helpful presence.

A special musical program was given at Wootton on Monday night by the Scandinavian Corps under the direction of Adjutant Peterson. Brigadier Taylor presided and reports that an overflow crowd was present. The Wootton Young People also took part in the program. Lieutenant Chapman treated the crowd to some excellent club-swinging.

During the absence of the Citadel Band on tour, other City Corps Bands together with the Citadel Y.P. Band are trying to keep things interesting at the N. 1. Corps.

Staff-Captain and Mrs. White met their initial visit to Elmwood last Sunday, and reports are that Elmwood Corps thoroughly enjoyed the visit of our comrades. Mrs. Colonel Turner also spent the day at the Corps and took a prominent part in all the meetings. Crowds were good, especially considering the hot weather.

Seven Souls at Night

Colonel Turner was at first time form, and his faithful help in the Unknown God made a deep impression on all. What a glorious victory to the week-end when seven souls were saved for salvation.

A large crowd assembled on the square in anticipation of the musical wind-up to be given by the Band. An hour's open-air program was a great success, each item bringing forth much applause, and there was great disappointment when the final item was announced.

Humboldt

We stopped off at Kamsack en route to Humboldt and played a few pieces on the station platform.

The city hall in Humboldt was well filled for the evening festival, and the crowd appeared delighted with the program. The Band's tune, time and ensemble throughout has been without doubt. Although the Band was tired, they were very good, and the crowd was very good.

The Bandmen are in the best of health and spirits and are looking forward to still greater times on the tour.—J. R. W.

Young People's Department

Notes by Major Sims, T.Y.P.S.

The weekly public Y.P. meetings are increasing in interest and attendance. Staff-Captain White officiated last Monday.

Humboldt is only a small town in northern Saskatchewan, but it has a real live Corps and that means we are among the Young People. Major Sims visited the Juniors here and reports that the Y.P. S.M. has a good hold on the Young People, and is doing more of them.

Seven Seckers

Major Sims spent a good day at the Citadel on Sunday. He was assisted in all the meetings by Corps Cadets Drysdale, Garvin, Doherty and Hutchinson, each of them taking active part in all the services. The Major speaks very highly of the manner and spirit in which they gave out songs, prayed and gave answers. Seven seckers were the visible results of the day's labors. The Major spent the afternoon with the Juniors in their Companies, and congratulated the Y.P. S.M. Mrs. Mitchell, on the improvement noticeable since his last visit. "Don't forget," said the Major as he left the office, "that the twins that I dedicated during the services were beautiful. They were lovely."

No Character Needed

A man once told the story of his wife in a big meeting. He was a life, a decision prodigy, but after some time he became troubled and determined to launch his old companions and get into better company. So he determined to join a mutual benefit society. But they made enquiries about him and, finding that he was a drunken sailor, they rejected him. He then went to another. There were told to recommend him, so they inquired into his character and, finding him to be a thoroughly bad lot, they also refused his company. One day someone handed him a little hand-bill in the street about a mission service, and he went in. He heard that Christ came to seek and to save sinners. He believed Him; and, in telling the story of his conversion, he added: "I came to Christ without a character, and He didn't reject me." Christ is the one Friend for the man without a character.

Evil communications corrupt good manners.

Another Veteran Bandsman

Years have been playing in Salvation Army Bands in this city.

Having been led to Christ as a young man at the Congress hall, Brighton, England, Brother Luff was enrolled as a soldier there, and while a soldier learned to play the alto horn. For five years he played in the Congress Hall Band, and then upon removal to Winnipeg took up the cornet, which instrument he has been playing ever since.

Upon the formation of a band at No. 3 Corps, Brother Luff transferred, and while there rendered faithful service.

For the last six years Brother Luff, or Charlie, as he is affectionately known, has rendered faithful service as a member of the No. 2 Band, which since the war has been reorganized, and is now known as the North Winnipeg Band.

Being a Bandsman for thirty-eight years, he is still looking forward to a service of many years, when by the grace of God, he may be able to give a word of testimony, he may be used in leading many to God.

The result of the recent S.D. offer will amount to over $120,000 and $130,000. This is the greatest amount ever secured in the American Territory for the Corps.

Colonel Brunch's health at the present time is not very satisfactory, and prayer is requested on his behalf.

The Scandinavian Corps Cadets of Wootton are a fine brigade, and will play under the leadership of Edgell Lexson. A special answer is secured in the end of every month to give an answer to the Corps. White was booked for July 2.

A Divisional Young People's Secretary is to be appointed for Southern Manitoba, and the Y.P. S.M. is to be appointed for the D.C. hands and bring the Y.P. work to the place it should occupy at this province.

Handyman Charles Luff, Winnipeg 11.

Bandsman Luff, whose photo is reproduced herewith, is a veteran indeed. He came to Winnipeg from the S. A. had only been here eighteen months, when the old No. 1 band was located at the corner of Notre Dame and Adelaide, and for the last thirty-three

Be a Company Guard in Real Earnest

The accompanying art is an illustration of the true Company Guard. See how the children look to her to safeguard them from the vulture that is threatening; also notice how she puts forth her best effort to protect them. All virtues that seek the destruction of the children may not be as fierce-looking as the one depicted in the art, but are as dangerous and perhaps more so. The vultures of worldly amusements, idleness, brutal reading, ungodly companions, etc., are all striving to destroy our Young People. The ideal Company Guards will, by personal example and counsel, keep a tender watch over these whom God has placed under their care, being willing to suffer personally rather than that their charge should be lost.

The Call Is Sacrifice

Problems such as we have never had presented to our minds and hearts are now pressing upon us. Speaking of this, a contemporary says: "We cannot avoid them; they challenge everybody, and call for solutions which may be described as opportunity and duty. The end of all the pressure exerted now, in service, and it is one thing to answer to it. Milton has said, 'They also serve who only stand and wait.' Often waiting is the hardest part of service. All soldiers know that when the trumpet sounds and the suspense of waiting gives way, it is a relief to respond with action. The call to old and young is sacrifice, and many will have to give the things that begin to cost, and the joy of living. The one great question for each to answer is: 'In what way shall I respond?'

The most conspicuous virtue now is, how to make a cheerful heart show itself in a glad countenance."

On that occasion a friend of Franklin's left his money at home on going to the meeting, and he was persuaded by the witchery of Whitefield's speech to make a contribution. Towards the end of the discourse his mind changed, and he applied to a friend to lend him some money. The answer reveals the power Whitefield had over men's hearts: "At any other time, Friend Hopkinson, I would lead to live freely, but not now for these seems to me to be out of their right senses."

How pleasant a thing it is for brothers to dwell together in unity.

When to Witness

In the presence of an enemy it is wise for a Christian to be aggressive. Make the first advance to show your colors before the other side takes advantage. Many a victory has been given away to the enemy through not witnessing for God upon the first opportunity.

For whoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humblesh himself shall be exalted.

Original Welcome Song

This song was sung by Red Deer comrades at the welcome of Staff-Captain and Mrs. Larson, new D.O.s for Northern Alberta:

Tune: "The Thousand Souls"

We welcome here our Leaders now, The Staff and his dear wife; They've come to lead us forth to fight And preach Eternal Life.

Chorus—

God bless our D.O.s. Bless them now, For God hath sent them to us; We'll thank them for God and souls, North Nelson, Red and Green.

They've left the prairie cold and drear To come to this fair clime, From howling winds and snow and ice To sunshine all the time.

We know their comrades loved them there, And were to them quite true, But we will show them by God's grace What Red Deer soldiers do.

The Staff will find us all the time, Right eager, willing souls; We'll welcome them, of course, sent— Yes, even to the Poles.

And so we greet you here today, Dear Staff and your dear wife; We pray you preserve us to today And God for all our lives.

Get Right with God

The urgent and unending call of The Salvation Army to all men everywhere to get right with God receives endorsement daily. But we would not merely have men prepared for death. To be saved is to be equipped for living as well as for dying; to be a servant of God is to be the friend of all and the enemy of none, ready for all the vicissitudes which fall to the lot of human beings, including, of course, death, whether it come unexpectedly or after due warning. Are you serving God?

usefulness for our Bands and other musical organisations in similar circumstances. There are numerous small points that could be visited by our musical combinations at intervals with the assurance of an eager and appreciative audience. Some of those who listened to the playing of the Band had travelled 40 miles in order to be present on this occasion. Their pleasure was evidenced not only by the hearty applause with which each item was received, but by the generous offerings given in response to the appeal of the Rev. Mr. Anderson of the Stony Mountain Presbyterian church.

Sunday Night
The evening service was conducted by Major Pencock and Staff-Captain Godline in the church, which was followed by a mass and a religious demonstration at the depot. Practically the entire population of Stony Mountain marched behind the Band from the village to the depot, and gave the men a splendid send-off. "The biggest day in the history of Stony Mountain," said the Rev. Mr. Anderson.

The Bandmen were very kindly entertained by the friends of Stony Mountain. They travelled back to Winnipeg with the thought of a day not only pleasantly but well spent.

Experience of a Recently Commissioned Officer

Lieut. Yariett writes interestingly of his first days at Herbert, but is fired with the Training School spirit.

In my last interview with Brigadier-General Sir John Dill, I was talking to go anywhere. I said, Yes! He said that it was one thing to say that you are willing, and another to live it out when you got to some of those places. I have already found the latter to be true.

"I arrived here in the midst of a western blizzard at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The Captain met me with a car and took me to the new mess hall, which I found to be the new Hall, but when I got to the Hall I found that the new Hall was a store that had been empty for about two years and which needed about 4 hours of work before it could be used. After going to the Quarters I started right in and helped to scrub. That was the first two hours in Herbert's mess. I then moved into it. I found it was a mess in the first place. I don't think France would be in it. It was lovely moving chairs and the platform.

After we had got settled in our quarters Hall we had to move into one. Quarterns was a small room with a bed, a table, a chair, a stove, and a window. It was not very comfortable, and it was worse than moving into the kitchen. When we got in we found that the kitchen roof was like a salted box lid. Of course when it rained outside it also rained inside, and it is still the same. The salted box lid was the worst thing we had to live with. Another thing was that the stove was so hot that we had to keep it away from the quarters is that we have to tie the door with string when we go out, and there is no lock on it and we cannot put one on with no money.

One of the roofs of our Hall is like the kitchen roof. The roof is outside it also rains inside. A week ago last Sunday night, whilst in the midst of our Messing, a part of the ceiling gave out.

water with it. Talk about the showers in the Collegal! Our Holi is better than they. The other day I was appointed to tar the roof to see if that would stop it, but it failed, so I hunted around to find old rusty stovepipes which I did, and flattened them out and fixed the roof. Where there's a will there's a way.

"Salary around here? Why, we don't know what it is, but salary or no salary, whether the roof leaks or not, I am going to fight the devil and help pull down his kingdom until the end of the world."

Salvation Songs

Tunes—"Hallelujah to the Lamb," 51; "Mansions," 47.
Jesus, I love Thy charming name,
Thy music to my ear,
Pain would I sound it out so loud
That earth and heaven should hear.

CHORUS
Hallelujah to the Lamb,
Who died on Mount Calvary!
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Amen.
Yes, Thou art precious to my soul,
My Transport and my Trust;
Jewels to Thee are gaudy toys,
And gold is scum and dust.

Thy grace still dwells within my heart
And sheds its fragrance there,
The noblest balm of all its wounds,
The cordial of its care.

I'll speak the honors of Thy name
With my last laboring breath;
Then, spiritless, clasped Thee in my arms,
The Conqueror of death.

Tunes—Rockingham, 15; Reuben, 74; Song-Book, 412.
He wills that I should holy be;
That Holiness I long to feel,
That full Divine conformity
To all my Saviour's righteous will.

Oh, I'm glad there is cleansing in the blood!
I am glad there is cleansing in the blood!
Oh, I'm glad there is cleansing in the blood!
I am glad there is cleansing in the blood!

On Thee, O God, my soul is stayed,
And waits to prove Thine utmost will;
The promise by Thy mercy made,
Thou canst, Thou wilt in me fulfill.

Thy loving Spirit, Christ, alone
Can lead me forth and make me free,
Thy surety bond through which I
And set my heart at liberty.
